

RIGHT TO PURSUE INDIANS ACROSS BOUNDARY LINE

Agreement signed at México November 25, 1892, renewing agreement of June 25, 1890

Entered into force November 25, 1892

Expired November 25, 1893

Treaty Series 234

The undersigned, duly authorized thereto by their respective Governments, In view of the wish of the Government of the United States of America, manifested by its Honorable Secretary of State, under date of the 17th of the current month, through its Legation, to the Secretary of Foreign Affairs of Mexico, for a renewal of the agreement signed at Washington on the 25th of June 1890,¹ to allow federal troops of each of the two countries to cross over to the territory of the other in pursuit of savage hostile indians, such renewal having become necessary by reason of the raids which, according to advices from the War Department of the United States, are being committed by some Apaches headed by the indian called "KID" along the dividing line between Arizona and New Mexico, it being feared that they seek to evade pursuit made by troops of the United States, by crossing the frontier of Mexico.

And, considering that the understanding between the two interested Governments to avoid the continuation of the evils consequent upon the uprising of the said indians is urgent,

They have agreed, in name and representation of their respective Governments, to renew the aforesaid agreement of June 25, 1890, of which a printed copy in English and Spanish is hereto attached, to the end that its effects may prevail for all such time as said uprising may last on the part of the Apache indians led by the ring-leader "KID," and the necessity may exist for their pursuit by an armed force, provided that, in no case, may the duration of the agreement thus hereby renewed, be extended beyond one year from this date.

Done in two copies, signed and sealed in the city of Mexico, this twenty-fifth day of November, the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
